RULES for the Regulation of COACHMEN.

I. Every coach shall be numbered and entered at the town clerk's office. Penalty 10s.

II. No coachman shall demand more than the rates before allowed, or refuse or delay to drive a fare for the same, when called, by day or night, fair or foul weather. Penalty 10s.

III. No coachman shall refuse the first fare that offers, unless really pre-engaged. Penalty 10s.

IV. Every coachman shall have a check string, from the inside of his carriage, fastened round his hand or arm, when driving a fare. Penalty 5s.

V. No coachman shall leave his carriage, or suffer it to stand in any street or thorough-fare by night. Penalty 10s.

VI. No coachman shall drive his carriage upon the foot way in any street or high road. Penalty 10s.

VII. Every person calling a coach, and not employing it according to the call, shall pay the coachman half (and if kept waiting 15 minutes or more, the whole) of the intended fare. Penalty 10s.

VIII. No person shall blot out, deface, or alter the number of any coach. Penalty 10s.

RULES for the Regulation of CHAIRMEN.

They are subject to the like regulations, and the same penalties for misbehaviour, as the coachmen.

On non-payment of the penalty, the offender shall be imprisoned in the common goal seven days.

All complaints shall be heard and determined within six days, by the Mayor, Recorder, or any Justice of the Peace of this town, who shall divide the penalty between the informer and the poor.

RULES for the Regulation of WATERSIDE CARMEN.

I. Each carman to take his turn immediately, let the load be good or bad, single or double, at a gin or warehouse, or on the Bank, and the first on the Bank entitled to the first turn. Penalty for breaking this order, 5s.

II. In case any carman, who is not first in turn, shall be set to, or begun to load, he shall drive up and give way to him who is first in turn, unless the goods be free from the ground or bottom of the vessel, before the first in turn shall come to the place of loading. Penalty 5s.

III. If any carman goes off the quay for goods, or off his turn, whether disappointed or not, he shall be deemed last in turn when he comes on the quay again, and shall not take any other turn than the last. Penalty 5s.

IV. No carman to take more than two hogheads of tobacco, sugar or molasses, or two puncheons of rum or liquors, at one load. Penalty 5s.

V. No carman to take above a double load (30 cwt.) of goods at one time, except from a London or Bristol ship, where he is allowed to take what is properly termed a load of odd goods, and also from Eastham and Ince boats; and of bay yarn, hops, cotton, and the like, rated at 1d. per pack, he is not to exceed twelve packs at one load. Penalty 5s.

VI. Of ashes or oil, no more than a double load, (30 cwt.) or eight bands to be taken at one time, unless one or two barrels only be left at the place of loading, in which case the same cart may load the whole.

If three more remain, they are to be taken by the next in turn. Penalty 5s.

VII. Five hundred hoghead staves, 600 barrel staves, 250 double Dantzick, or 300 American pipe staves, to be carried at one loading. Penalty 5s. on the carman who exceeds that number.

VIII. The turns on the Salthouse Dock Quays, viz. from the gates on the east side to Alcock's corner, from thence to Campbell's corner, from thence to Rathbone's corner, and from thence on the west side to the gates. On the North Dock, viz. the Quay between the Dry and North Dock Gates; from those Gates to the New Basin Gates on the east side; the like distance on the west side, and all round the Basin.

IX. Each article of goods loaded out of any house, warehouse or cellar, facing the docks, belongs to the first cart in turn. Penalty 5s.

X. No carman, after having been off the quay, shall demand his turn upon any untrue pretence of his having been round the dock, when he has not been so. Penalty 3s.

XI. Each carman going for any goods and quitting the quay first, though another cart go past him, shall load first. Penalty 5s.

XII. A carman loading at any coasting vessel, and having in his cart two hogheads of sugar, or any two packages, which, according to the fares aforesaid, shall amount to a double load, shall not carry any thing else therewith. Penalty 5s.

XIII. No carman to take above six barrels of porter at once, unless there be only one left at the place of loading; if two or more remain, he is to carry six, and leave the rest for the next cart. Penalty 5s.

XIV. Of goods from flats on the Bank, each carman to take any quantity, at his option, not exceeding 30 cwt. Penalty for taking more 5s.

XV. A carman having two hogheads of tobacco in his cart, shall not carry trussed tobacco therewith, nor any thing else, so as to call it a double load. Penalty 5s.

XVI. No more than eight tierces of beef to be taken at a load, unless there be not exceeding ten tierces at the place of loading, which, in that case, the carman is allowed to load; but if eleven are to be carried, he is to take eight, and leave three for the next cart.— Of tar, pitch, turpentine, herrings, beef, and butter, ten barrels to be carried at once, unless only thirteen at the place of loading; if more, the carman to take ten and leave the rest for the next in turn. Penalty 5s.

XVII. Any carman setting to a gin or ladder to load, if there proves to be but one load, shall go to the next place to make out his double load, provided both be upon one turn, and not else, Penalty 5s.

XVIII. If two or more carts are going from the docks, to load at any other place, and there be a vacancy between them, and a third carman coming up any street, interposes in the vacancy, they shall be permitted to load first, and the carman interposing shall afterwards load in turn. Penalty 5s.

XIX. If a carman refuses or delays, upon request, to take a load, the next cart in turn may carry the goods, and the carman refusing shall forfeit 5s.

XX. Each carman going to load at any place about the Old Dock, not knowing himself to be first in turn, is to call aloud, "Cart, Cart," and endeavour to be heard from one end of the turn to the other; and when he may see the cart coming, which is in turn before him, he shall not take the load. Penalty 5s. and shall be deemed the last cart upon the stand.

XXI. Of arms, no more than 12 single or 8 double chests to be carried at once, unless there be only 15 single or 10 double chests to be loaded; if more than such number at the place of loading, the first cart to take his proper load, and leave the rest for the next in turn. Penalty 5s.

XXII. Nuts, 24 bags to be carried for one load, and no more, unless only 31 bags in the whole; if 32, the carman to take 24, and leave the rest for next in turn. Penalty 5s.

XXIII. Oil or blubber from the oil yard, no carman to take more than one butt, one pipe, two puncheons, three hogheads, or eight barrels, for one load. Penalty 5s.

XXIV. No carman to load more than one boat at a time, on his cart or truck, nor use a whip to drive with, exceeding seven feet in length, or having a lash above eighteen inches. Penalty 10s.

RULES for the REGULATION of CARMEN in general.

1. All carts, whilst loading or unloading, shall be placed sideways in the street, and as close to the side of the street as possible, and not across it, so as carriages and persons may pass and repass; and if any carman shall leave his cart, or suffer it to stand in the street, not being loading or unloading, he shall leave a fit person to attend it in his absence, and shall draw up and give way to passengers, when required, and shall not wilfully interrupt the free passage of the street. Penalty 10s.
2. The driver of any cart, dray, or carriage, shall not drive the same upon the foot way in any street or public road. Penalty 5s.
3. Every carman charging or receiving pay for more loads than he has actually carried, shall forfeit 10s.
4. Every carman shall assist in loading and unloading his cart, for the settled fare. Penalty 10s.
5. No carman shall demand or take more than the fares allowed by this court. Penalty 10s.
6. No carman shall refuse, or wilfully delay, to come and take in his loading, when called. Penalty 10s.
7. Every person calling a cart, and keeping it waiting above 15 minutes, for the purpose of loading, shall pay, for every hour's waiting beyond the 15 minutes, 6d. for a cart and single horse; and 1s. for a cart and two horses, and in proportion for a less time. And if dismissed without loading, shall pay the carman half fare for a single load, besides the detention.
8. No carman shall drive his carriage through the street at a greater rate or pace than the common horse walk, upon any account; and he shall constantly be attendant upon, or aside of his horses, when in motion, and have double reins to the bridles. And all but water-side carmen shall drive with whips not more than five feet long, and lashes not exceeding 18 inches. Penalty 10s.

9. No water cart shall be driven by any person under 16 years of age. Penalty, upon the owner, 10s.

10. The drivers of all carts and carriages of burthen, shall give way to coaches, and other carriages of equipage; processions of magistracy; funerals, and their attendants; and sedan chairs, as well when in motion, as when stopping to load or unload. Penalty 5s.

11. Every carman leaving his carriage in the open street by night, whether laden or empty, shall forfeit 10s.

12. If any person shall refuse, or neglect, to pay a carman his just fare, he is to complain to the Mayor, or a Justice of the Peace, who will summon the party, and make such order for payment as he shall think reasonable. Penalty, for not complying with it, 10s.

13. If the owner of a cart shall not deliver up the driver, being in his service, to answer a complaint lodged against him for breach of these rules, within seven days after he has received notice so to do, he shall be liable to pay the penalty incurred by the driver, or forfeit 10s. and the driver shall repay it to the owner, under the like forfeiture.

14. All complaints to be heard and determined before the Mayor, Recorder, or one Justice of the Peace, in six days after the offence committed; the penalties to be levied upon the offender's goods, and distributed, one half to the informer, and the other half to the poor; and, if he has no goods, he is to suffer seven days imprisonment in the common goal.

RULES for the Regulation of PORTERS.

I. Each porter shall attend upon the quay, or at any warehouse or place, on reasonable notice, with a sufficient number of men for the business he is called upon. Penalty 10s.

II. If any porter shall demand or take more than the fares or prices allowed by this court, or shall offer insult, or utter abusive language to his employer, he shall forfeit 10s.

And the rules, No. 12, 13, and 14, in the foregoing list, for regulating the behaviour of carmen, extend also to porters in similar cases.

Published by order of the Court of Quarter Sessions,

GREGSON, Town-Clerk.
